REGIONAL ARTS CONFERENCE

THE ARTS – A LOAD OF RUBBISH ?!

Environmental contexts for exciting arts learning

Friday 20th June 2008

Lincoln Performing Arts Centre

Andy Burnham

(Still to be confirmed)

£130 ex VAT

This conference is for all those with a desire to provide exciting arts experiences for pupils in KS1 – KS4. Held in Lincoln University's impressive new facilities, this event provides delegates with a choice of inspiring arts workshops, all using the theme of environmental issues. Workshops being arranged include:

SINGING

Seagull Recycling

All conference resources will be recycled – maybe not the food!

Andy Burnham was made Culture, Media and Sport Secretary in January 2008.

"All children have creative talents and we want to ensure that they have the opportunity to develop them. Theatre, film, music, museums and other art forms can be life-changing for young people, broadening their horizons and raising self-confidence and aspirations. I want all young people to have the chance to both experience and take part in creative activities to help them learn and develop."
